

Certificate in Ageing and Disability Care

Duration:
03 Months

Course Delivery:
Blended

This program equips learners with the knowledge and practical skills needed to support older adults and individuals with disabilities in community, residential, and healthcare settings.

Students gain hands-on experience in providing person-centred care, promoting independence, and enhancing quality of life.

Career Opportunities

Support Workers

Personal Care Assistants

Disability Support Workers

Community Care Workers in a variety of healthcare and aged care facilities.

Course Highlights

Focus on person-centred care and independent living

Practical training in real-world care environments

Designed to meet industry and employer needs

What you will study

- Course orientation & introduction to Ageing and Disability
- Introduction to basic human anatomy & physiology
- Age related changes in body systems and health promotion strategies
- Common health problems in old age
- Meeting the needs of elderly
- Workplace health and safety
- Legal and social support systems for elderly
- Emergency health care for elderly
- End of life care
- Work effectively with diverse culture